Roanoke Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., October 8.—A beautiful dance and card party were given by Miss Edmondia W. Gray at Rockledge Inn Thursday evening. Over 100 guests were present. Delicious refreshments were served. Those who did not dance played bridge on the veranda.
The card party given Wednesday afternoon by the Daughters of the Confederacy proved to be one of the largest and most successful entertainments the women have ever given. Twenty-two tables of bridge were in play. First prize was won by Mrs. J. Harry Givins, while the "consolation" went to Mrs. B. L. Speed. The daughters gave the card party for the purpose of obtaining funds for their contribution to the Arlington monument. The Roanoke Chapter has for its chief aim and work the care of needy Confederates and their families in this city, and because of this local charity work has been unable to contribute liberally to monuments. But this year they will undertake to make several contributions to monuments.

Miss Lella McLachlan Ellis, of Shawsville, has been appointed sponsor in chief for the Virginia Division, United States of Confederate Veterans, which meets in annual session in Norfolk October 18. Her maids of honor will be Miss Alice Old, of Norfolk, and Miss Elizabeth Harrison, of this city. Miss Mayme Jennings, also of Roanoke, has been appointed sponsor for the Sixth District. Miss Jennings and Miss Harrison are both prominent in Roanoke society. Miss Harrison is a daughter of Judge, Mrs. Nicholas H. Harrison. Miss Jennings is the daughter of Charles T. Jennings, a prominent Roanoke business man.
John Wilson Cook has issued invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Mary Sherman, to Charles Edgar Kendig, of Baltimore, Md., on Monday, October 10, at 9 P. M., in St. John's Episcopal Church. The marriage will take place at 9 P. M., in St. John's Episcopal Church. The marriage will take place at 9 P. M., in St. John's Episcopal Church.
The Thursday Morning Music Club held an interesting meeting in the home of Mrs. A. J. Kennard this week. An excellent program was enjoyed.
Mrs. Joseph W. Cox left Wednesday for Knoxville, Tenn., to attend the Appalachian Exposition. Mrs. Cox, who was chairman of the committee of Roanoke women, who secured exhibits for the women's department of the exposition, was very successful, and this city is now represented at the exhibition by rare old books, pictures and other valuable articles secured from Roanoke.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian Church held a most enjoyable social meeting at Rockledge Inn Tuesday afternoon.
The Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. T. E. Jamison, Roanoke Street.
The delegates from William Watts Chapter, U. D. C., of this city, who will leave Tuesday for Suffolk to attend the State convention, will go instructed to make contributions to the Arlington and Shiloh monuments and to invite the convention to meet in this city next year. The daughters of this city are very anxious to have the convention meet here. It has never been entertained in Roanoke.
